

The “The Paul Geroski Best Article” Prize 2006

The editors of International Journal of Industrial Organization are pleased to announce the year 2006 winners for the best paper published in the Journal in 2006:

H. Vasconcelos

“Endogenous mergers in endogenous sunk cost industries” (IJIO, Volume 24:pp. 227–250)
Khwaja, Sloan, & Salm “Evidence on Preferences and subjective beliefs of risk-takers:
The case of cigarettes” (IJIO Volume 24(4), pp. 667–682)

The prize per article, is one-thousand US$ (1,000). The winners will also receives from Elsevier an award certificate during the course of the next weeks.

The prize committee comprises of the editors of the journal.

Editors

P. Bajari
B. Caillaud
N. Gandal